1. Short title and commencement.— (i) This scheme shall be called, "Scheme to provide school buses to the Aided Schools – 2013".

(ii) This scheme shall come into force on the date the Notification is published in the Official Gazette.

(iii) The scheme shall be applicable to entire Goa State at once.

2. Aim & Objectives.— The scheme intends to provide proper transportation to the students studying in aided schools and strengthen the educational infrastructure of the State thereby catering to the need of the aided schools.

3. Eligibility.— (i) All the aided schools recognized by the Directorate of Education shall be eligible for the scheme.

(ii) For the purpose of the scheme, the Directorate of Education shall classify all the aided schools into four categories i.e. "A, B, C & D" based on the strength and other parameters as annexed.

Category A: Institutions having minimum 12 divisions from Std. Vth to Xth for past 3 years.

There are 72 institutions under this category.

Category B: Institutions having minimum 6 divisions, with maximum strength per division as per rules, from Std. Vth to Xth for last 3 years.

There are 77 institutions under this category.

Category C: Institutions having minimum 6 divisions, without relaxation from Std. Vth to Xth for last 3 years.

There are 62 institutions under this category.

Category D: Institutions having six divisions or less under relaxation in division/enrolment. All institutions not included in Category A, B and C are included in this category. There are 7 Middle Schools and 84 High Schools under this category.

Further, 'A' category school shall be eligible for 3 school buses; 'B' category school shall be eligible for 2 school buses, whereas 'C' & 'D' school shall be eligible for 1 school bus. School bus granted will be for the period of 7 years and replacement will be considered at the end of 7 years on same terms and conditions. However, new bus will be handed over on returning of the old bus in working condition.

(iii) To become eligible under the scheme the school shall require to produce a certificate from the Chartered Accountant, certifying that there is minimum balance of Rs. 1 lakh in the Bank in the name of the Society, Trust, Management running the school and that the said management is capable of operating the school bus and financially sound to bear recurring expenses, day-to-day expenses to run the school bus, in eventuality of delayed recurring grants.

(iv) The management of the school shall also be required to submit a stamped Notorised Undertaking, stating that they shall bear the recurring expenses, day-to-day expenses and run the school bus if there is delay to release the recurring grants by the Department of Education for any reason.

4. Nature and quantum of assistance.— (i) The Directorate of Education will provide school buses to the aided schools directly, as per eligibility of schools under clause 3 (ii), step by step taking few schools at a time to cover all the schools in three years.

(ii) Further, Directorate of Education shall release recurring grants of Rs. 3 lakhs per annum to meet the recurring and day-to-day expenses to operate the school bus, out of which Rs. 2 lakhs shall be released in the month of June and Rs. 1 lakh shall be released in the month of December every year.

(iii) The schools which have received buses under old Bal Rath Scheme will get the grant as per existing Pattern of Assistance for this Academic year and New Pattern of Assistance will be applicable from the next Academic year.

(iv) The schools which have received new buses for this academic year will get an amount of Rs.30,000/- per month per bus from the date of approval of the new Bal Rath Scheme for the remaining month of the Academic year.

5. Other conditions & requirements.— (i) The management of the school shall make the insurance of the bus within two days after receiving the bus from the Directorate of Education and before putting the bus for use to transport the school children. The payment to the insurance company shall be invariably done only through account payee cross cheque by the management of the school.

(ii) All the payment to the Drivers and Cleaners/Bus Attendant shall be effected either through Electronic Clearance System or by way of Accounts payee crossed cheque only. Further all payments above Rs. 5,000/- to any person will be made only by crossed cheque.

(iii) The management of the school shall submit separate audited accounts duly signed by the Chartered Accountant showing Receipts & Payments under this scheme for preceding financial year latest by 30th September of every year and a detail report alongwith the certificate from Parent Teachers' Association certifying that the school bus was in operation throughout the year and the bus services was to the satisfaction of Parent Teachers' Association.

(iv) Non-submission of above documents shall amount to the ineligibility of the institutions to receive any further grants under this scheme.

(v) Recurring grants not utilized within three years of its release shall be adjusted in subsequent financial year by curtailing the recurring grants of subsequent financial year to the tune of non-spent recurring grants of the preceding financial year.

6. Procedures to avail benefit under the scheme.— (i) The eligible aided school shall apply to the Directorate of Education alongwith all the documents required under the scheme before 30th November of every calendar year, in order to avail benefit for the subsequent academic year starting from June. However, for the first year of commencement of the scheme, this condition shall be relaxed at the discretion of the Government.

(ii) On receipt of such application every year, Education Department shall scrutinize all the applications and place the same before Sanctioning Committee.

7. Sanctioning Committee.— (i) The Committee shall comprise of:—

- (a) Secretary (Education) —Chairperson
- (b) Director of Education
- (c) Director (Administration) Education Department.

(ii) The Sanctioning Committee on being satisfied about the details submitted will approve release of funds for purchase of Bus/Mini Bus.

8. Purchase of Buses.— (i) Once number of buses required is finalized, the Department of Education shall finalize the make/model of the bus which they want to purchase in consultation with Sanctioning Committee and with prior approval of the Government and then purchase required number of buses as per the budget provisions within 3 months after following codal formalities.

(ii) In any case Education Department shall handover such buses to the aided schools latest by 31st May of every year so that schools can operate the buses from the beginning of the academic year in the month of June. However, for the first year of commencement of this scheme, this condition shall be relaxed at the discretion of the Government.

9. Framing of Guidelines.— For better implementation of the scheme, Department of Education shall frame guidelines from time to time if required with prior approval of the Government or as per the guidelines of GAD.

10. Relaxation.— The Government may relax all or any of the clauses provided in the scheme for the reasons to be recorded.

Department of Power

Office of the Chief Electrical Engineer

Order

CEE/Estt/34-D/8843

Whereas Electricity Department was created in the year 1963 with skeleton staff.

And whereas with the increase in the work load of the Department a number of posts were created to cater to the needs of the public and to provide better, efficient and regular service to the public.

And whereas the post creation orders of some of the posts created were not readily available in the Department.

And whereas Administrative Reforms Department to whom the matter of revival of post of Junior Engineer (Elect.) was referred, have advised the Department to take steps to notify the sanctioned strength of the Department in the Official Gazette in view of the absence of creation order which would enable the Department to have notified individual sanctioned strength for each of the offices/sub-offices etc., depending on the requirement.

Now therefore in view of the advise tendered by Administrative Reforms Department, the post-wise sanctioned strength of the Department is fixed as under:—
